

Who is an Affiliate?

An affiliate is a person, partnership, body corporate, association, governmental or local authority or agency, entity holding a current IHTSDO Affiliate License.

How do I sign up for the Affiliate Forum?

Sign up to participate in the Affiliate Forum on the Affiliate Forum Collaborative site located on the IHTSDO home page

How will I participate in the Affiliate Forum?

Each Affiliate nominates a single person to act on its behalf in attending, representing, speaking and voting at meetings and on ballots. Participation will be through the Affiliate Forum collaborative site as well as through scheduled meetings and at the IHTSDO bi-annual working group meeting.

How will I be notified of Affiliate Forum meetings, ballots and other business?

Each Affiliate is to provide contact details for the purpose of receiving notices, and where the Affiliate has nominated a person as an Affiliate Voter, should specify that person to receive and distribute Affiliate Forum notices of meetings, ballots and other business.

How often is in-person Affiliate Forum meetings scheduled?

Meetings are held in conjunction with the regular twice-yearly IHTSDO meetings at a time considered convenient for attendance by Affiliates.

What are the voting rights for Affiliates?

Each Affiliate is entitled to one and only one vote. If a single Affiliate holds more than one IHTSDO Affiliate license, the Affiliate is still not entitled to more than one vote at a meeting or on a ballot.

Why do I want to be involved in the Affiliate Forum?

Provide a voice from the users of SNOMED CT to the IHTSDO around any issues or concerns relating to licensing, terminology content, modeling, change management, distribution formats and associated policies and procedures.